Regarding your transferred list I surveyed the following item:

36" Toshiba TV – Base cracked and inoperable – Purchase Price: US $800.00

- This TV is not working
- From outside you cannot see any damage.
- See photo 1

Dining Table – Edges to top cracked/dented. Please advise whether repairs may be possible – Purchase Price: US $1,000.00

- There are two cracks on the extension from the table. They are on the corners
- Ca. 1,5 X 1,5 cm
- See photos 2 - 3
- There are two damages on the table direct. They are 1,5 X 1,0 cm.
- See photos 4 and 5
- Repairing is possible in Germany

Large Area Lamp – Base Broken

- The lamp is total destroyed. Absolutely no way to repair it.
- See photos 6 and 7

Armoire – Legs broken. Please confirm whether repairs are possible

- Two legs are broken. This can be repaired.
- But this Armoire is totally instable. This caused by the Move. They like to use it for children's room and this can be very dangerous.
- So replacement is necessary.
- See photos 8 and 9

Book Stand – Legs buckled

- Two legs are buckled.
- See photos 10 - 14

Plates – Chipped

- 4 plates are chipped.
- It's not easy to make photos from that.
- See photos 15 and 16

Wine Glass – Broken

- It is not really broken. There is only a crack ca. 3 cm
- This you cannot see on a photo.
- But the glass you cannot use.

Picture Frame – Broken

- I could not see it.

- There were too many small glass pieces and so the packers put it away.
- No photo.

Fruit Stand – Broken

- There is nothing destroyed. These are 3 pieces and they are so hard together that you cannot move them without destroying.
- So this fruit stand cannot be used.
- See photo IMG 8535

Résumé:

To repair the TV's here in Germany makes no sense.

The Armoire can be repaired. But client do not want. Big risk for the children. So they want replacement.

Book stand, table.... can be repaired. But such small repairing needs a lot of time and this is expensive in Germany.
